United Bowhunters of Missouri / Share the Harvest

CONTACT 01 | AVAILABLE TODAY

01 / CALL-READY

Person: Darren Haverstick

Phone: 417-693-5304 Email: dchaverstick@gmail.com

Site / program: United Bowhunters of Missouri

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

United Bowhunters of Missouri is a traditional-bowhunting group. Share the Harvest is a separate statewide venison donation program, with which Darren served as a past chair.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 8: Darren replied that any time today works for a call.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

A personal hunter's account of giving deer meat and what it means to the community.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What did you see during your time chairing Share the Harvest?
2. Can you tell me one particular deer donation you remember?
3. Would you prefer a personal hunting story or an explanation of how the program works?

WATCH FOR

Separate the UBM membership group from the state donation program; do not call Darren the current chair.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Darren offered availability today, Oct. 8; call or agree a precise time.

01 / CALL-READY

Person: Darrell Noblitt

Phone: 405-833-2112 Email: darrell@noblittoilandgas.com

Site / program: Affiliation not confirmed

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Darrell replied about a family-first-hunt story. The research brief associates his answer with the Oklahoma Youth Hunting Program, but the source email does not establish his role or organizational authority. Confirm his capacity first.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 8: Darrell said to call his cell any time after 7 AM today and asked whether Whitetail is called a Syndicate. His organization has not been established.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Identify who is involved in the family-first-hunt story he mentioned, and whether it belongs to an organization.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Which program or family first-hunt project are you working with, and what is your role?
2. What did you mean when you said you are doing the exact story we asked about?
3. Would you like a short example of the written Whitetail story format before any details are shared?

WATCH FOR

Do not identify Darrell as a formal representative of a particular hunting program until verified. No youth names/photos without guardian permission.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Call after 7 AM if appropriate; clarify affiliation and explain Whitetail is a clothing and community brand.

CONTACT 03 | READY TO CALL

Person: Pete Eisentrager

Phone: 816-506-0728 Email: missouridisabledsportsmen@gmail.com

Site / program: missouridisabledsportsmen.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Missouri Disabled Sportsmen is a volunteer group serving hunters with mobility impairments, young hunters and others. Its Timmy Smith Memorial antlerless hunt is Dec. 11-13 near Leonard, Missouri.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Pete invited a call to discuss the story proposal.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Explore how people keep Timmy Smith's memory alive through annual hunting traditions.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What do you want hunters and volunteers to remember about Timmy?
2. What is different about this memorial hunt compared with other events?
3. Might a consenting adult hunter and mentor want to tell one specific memory?

WATCH FOR

Consent, accessibility, participant comfort and family privacy matter more than a dramatic story.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Call Pete; determine whether an origin story or participant story fits best.

Becoming an Outdoors-Woman, Arkansas

CONTACT 04 | READY TO CALL

01 / CALL-READY

Person: Lea White

Phone: 501-676-8076 Email: lea.white@agfc.ar.gov

Site / program: agfc.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Arkansas Game and Fish Commission's Becoming an Outdoors-Woman program teaches women 18+ hunting, fishing and other outdoor skills; the Oct. 2-4 workshop has passed. Lea knows possible participants.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Lea has a few women who might be interested and invited Craig to call 501-676-8076 to discuss the details.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

An adult woman describing what she learned and how it affected her first season.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What part of the recent workshop tends to change participants' confidence most?
2. Would you pass an invitation to an adult who wants to share a first-season story?
3. Would a written account, with her approval before publication, fit your expectations?

WATCH FOR

Do not ask for attendee list or claim a participant is committed; agency affiliation is not editorial approval.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Call Lea at the number she supplied to discuss consenting adult candidates.

Dan Fout Memorial Disabled Veterans Hunt

CONTACT 05 | READY TO CALL

Person: William Frost
Phone: 740-412-2869 Email: wfrost81@gmail.com
Site / program: danfoutmemorialdavhunt.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Ohio archery/crossbow program for disabled veterans, begun by William Frost as a 2010 county hunt and renamed in Dan Fout's memory in 2016. Includes volunteer fellowship and memorial history.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

William is willing to share his own story and help with participant stories. He founded the hunt in 2010, explained Dan Fout's role in its origin and said he has many stories to tell.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Let William tell the actual origin story and why the memorial still matters.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Who was Dan Fout to you, and what led you to start the hunt?
2. Which year or veteran experience captures what the event became?
3. Would you be willing to review a written first-person draft before anything is used?

WATCH FOR

Veterans and supporters decide on participation. Avoid personal medical details unless voluntarily provided and approved.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Call William; he specifically offered both his story and possible participant introductions.

01 / CALL-READY

Person: Mike Cranford

Phone: 903-826-3318 Email: mike.cranford@sharingtheoutdoors.com

Site / program: sharingtheoutdoors.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Southern Sportsmen Foundation is a small nonprofit serving hunters with serious mobility impairments or life-threatening illness, with volunteer guides and adapted equipment. Its adult Redneck Safari is Nov. 17-20 near Foreman.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Mike, the foundation president, is open to discussing the Redneck Safari and invited Craig to contact him.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

What a guided adaptive hunt means to an adult participant and the volunteers who make it possible.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. How is the Redneck Safari designed around each hunter's needs?
2. Is there a volunteer or adult hunter who might want to share one memory?
3. How can we tell it without treating the disability as the whole story?

WATCH FOR

Participants set boundaries; do not conflate the foundation with Battle Branch Boys. No site or travel promises.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Call Mike using the number in his signature, and ask about willing adults.

Hot Springs Village POA urban hunt

CONTACT 07 | READY TO CALL

Person: Todd

Phone: 501-984-3800 Email: Use form reply thread / POA phone

Site / program: hsvurbandeerhunt.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Hot Springs Village POA runs a regulated urban bow deer program on private community land, focused on herd management and donated venison. It is not a guided-hunt business or private hunting club.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

The reply offers help and gives a number. This started through the website form, so there is no outgoing Gmail email for the initial message.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

The people managing deer responsibly near homes, and where the donated meat goes.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What led to the urban hunt and what do participating hunters learn in orientation?
2. How does the donated-venison relationship work?
3. Is there a willing adult hunter or volunteer who could tell a personal story?

WATCH FOR

No sensitive stand locations, residential addresses or private-lot access details. Community-program permissions apply.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Call the POA number Todd supplied and ask whom he would recommend speaking with.

Battle Branch Boys

CONTACT 08 | READY TO CALL

Person: Logan Shelley
Phone: 539-328-1291 Email: thebattlebranchboys@gmail.com
Site / program: thebattlebranchboys.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Battle Branch Boys is a media/gear brand that raises support for adaptive hunting. Their own Making Memories deer hunt in Colcord is Nov. 28-29; another large Alabama event is separately hosted.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 6: Logan is open to talking but wants an exact explanation of who approaches hunters and how. No access approved.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Explain our process first and let Logan protect the hunters and the weekend.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Who would you be comfortable having represent Whitetail on an initial visit, if any?
2. How do you prefer someone to invite a hunter without interrupting the event?
3. What would make the story genuinely useful to the hunter and guide?

WATCH FOR

No attendance, filming, filming crew, commercial placement, or participant approach without Logan's prior agreement and individual release.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Take the introductory call; be prepared to describe exact approach rather than asking for access.

River Ranch mentored hunt

CONTACT 09 | READY TO CALL

01 / CALL-READY

Person: Gary Dan Futrell

Phone: 870-845-6266 Email: gary.futrell@yorkgary.net

Site / program: agff.org (related foundation)

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Gary Dan Futrell hosts a private-land River Ranch youth mentorship hunt linked to the Arkansas Game and Fish Foundation. Wardens help mentor youth; deer are donated to Arkansas Hunters Feeding the Hungry.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Gary offered phone/email discussion; a forwarded note mentioned podcast, so clarify intended written format.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

A mentor and youth learning experience with an unusual donation connection.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. How did the River Ranch hunt start and who participates?
2. What moment from the last hunt best captures the wardens' role?
3. Would you rather discuss a written story, or was someone expecting a podcast?

WATCH FOR

Private land and youth guardians require separate permissions; AGFF is not the state Game and Fish Commission. The forwarded introduction mentioned a podcast, which was not promised by us.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Ask for a short call with Gary, and explicitly agree the proposed written format first.

Pine Tree WDA cleanup

CONTACT 10 | EVENT SOON

01 / CALL-READY

Person: Charles Gaines

Phone: Ask in existing email thread Email: charlesgaines01965@gmail.com

Site / program: AGFC Pine Tree WDA

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Local volunteer hunter organizing cleanup at Pine Tree Wildlife Demonstration Area, managed as public hunting ground by AGFC. Charles is not an AGFC employee. Oct. 10 cleanup concerns litter, parking, trails and boat lanes.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Charles is happy to talk about the October 10 cleanup and asked what works for me.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Why hunters choose to care for the same public ground where they hunt.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What started the cleanup tradition and who keeps showing up?
2. Can you remember a hunt at Pine Tree that explains why the place matters to you?
3. Would a fellow adult volunteer want to tell the story with you?

WATCH FOR

Do not describe Charles as speaking for Arkansas Game and Fish Commission. Any official AGFC interviews need their own approval.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Set a brief call around Oct. 10; a discussion does not commit us to attending.

NOTES DURING THE CALL

Hope Outdoors - Searcy chapter

CONTACT 11 | EVENT REVIEW

01 / CALL-READY

Person: Paul & Christy Parsons (Opie referred)

Phone: 501-593-2258 / 501-593-2257 Email: christykparsons@outlook.com

Site / program: hopeoutdoors.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Christian adaptive-hunting ministry. Searcy chapter led by Paul and Christy Parsons; Nov. 6-8 youth deer event is at Two Rivers Hunt Club. Its chapter grew from their family's experience bringing son Joe to a hunt.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 6: Christy invited discussing a Nov. 6-8 visit and asked the intended publication date. Attendance uncommitted.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

The family, volunteer and adaptive-access story behind a hunt weekend.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What story from your chapter would you most want people to understand?
2. Would an interview before or after the event better protect family time?
3. What approvals would be required for a visit, photos or a participating child?

WATCH FOR

An event invitation is not filming approval. No travel, expenses or publication promises without Kraig's sign-off and family permissions.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Discuss story timing and whether a visit is desirable; Paul can be reached after 6 PM.

NOTES DURING THE CALL

CALL DATE / TIME:

RESULT / FOLLOW-UP:

Arkansas Hunters Feeding the Hungry

Person: Ronnie Ritter

Phone: 501-282-0006 Email: ronnieritter@yahoo.com

Site / program: arkansashunters.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Arkansas nonprofit founded in 2000 that converts hunter-donated deer into food through participating processors, food pantries and school snack-stick programs. Ronnie runs the operation.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 8: Ronnie suggested Friday, Oct. 9, around 10 AM because of poor cell coverage while visiting processors. Not confirmed.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Tell what happens to a deer after donation, through the hunters and processors making it possible.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What does a hunter actually do to donate a deer?
2. Is there one donor or processor whose reason for participating has stayed with you?
3. Could you pass our invitation to that adult, without asking a food recipient to appear?

WATCH FOR

No promise of fundraising or coverage. Do not approach food recipients without their own consent. Earlier general email bounced; use the working contact.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Confirm Friday around 10 AM directly; ask for the best number and coverage window.

NOTES DURING THE CALL

CALL DATE / TIME:

RESULT / FOLLOW-UP:

Sources: attached deepdive.pdf p. 1; archived Whitetail email thread (latest check Oct. 8).

Outdoor Mentors

CONTACT 13 | TIME WINDOW

Person: Bobby Cole

Phone: Ask in existing email thread Email: bcole@outdoormentors.org

Site / program: outdoormentors.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Youth mentoring nonprofit connecting children without land, gear, or a hunting adult to trained volunteers. Bobby personally coordinates Oklahoma / western Kansas outings; Oct. 17 Lincoln County is a mentored youth deer hunt.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 8: Bobby can take a call after 11 AM Friday, Oct. 9. No time confirmed.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Ask about preparation before a first hunt and the relationships that last afterward.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What happens between matching a child with a mentor and arriving in the field?
2. What part of a first hunt do families usually remember besides the shot?
3. Is there an adult mentor or family you could privately pass this invitation to?

WATCH FOR

Youth: organization and parent/guardian first; no direct access to participants. Coordinate with the Sportsman's Club / Phineas Lea overlap.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Agree a short call; if interested, request an introduction through Bobby.

02 / TIMING

Person: Shawn Daniel

Phone: 931-220-2919 Email: sdaniel@darbyswarriorsupport.org

Site / program: darbyswarriorsupport.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Darby's Warrior Support supports special-operations veterans; its youth hunting program helps service members reconnect with their children through outdoor weekends. It is not a general youth hunt program.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 8: Shawn proposed Monday Oct. 12 at 9:30 AM Central. Craig said that works, and Shawn supplied 931-220-2919, asking for a call Monday. No calendar entry verified.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Family reconnection after service, told by a willing adult family member and/or staff.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What led you to develop the youth/family hunting weekend?
2. What does a successful weekend look like besides the harvest?
3. If we pursue a family story, how should approval and introductions be handled?

WATCH FOR

Service members, children and families retain control of details; no security-sensitive information or youth filming without approval.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Monday Oct. 12 at 9:30 AM Central was proposed; Shawn gave his cell and invited a call, but no calendar event is verified.

Oklahoma Hunters & Anglers

CONTACT 15 | READY TO CALL

Person: Rick Nolan

Phone: 405-410-1379 Email: info@oklahomahuntersandanglers.org

Site / program: oklahomahuntersandanglers.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Oklahoma conservation nonprofit. Its Tatanka Ranch program is a mentored antlerless deer hunt for adult beginners, separate from the ranch's commercial trophy hunts. One mentor per hunter.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 8: Rick is flexible except Thursday afternoon through Sunday at 6 PM while away with his grandson. Confirm availability before calling.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Focus on adults finding confidence and continuing to hunt after a first experience.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Who comes to the Tatanka Ranch hunt, and what do they need most before going out?
2. What changed for the people who participated last year?
3. Would a mentor and a willing adult beginner want to describe the same day together?

WATCH FOR

Do not confuse Oklahoma Hunters & Anglers with Tatanka's paid trophy hunts. Participation is voluntary.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Use Rick's flexible calling window and ask about one memorable mentor / adult hunter.

NOTES DURING THE CALL

Blast & Cast Men's Ministries

Person: Joel Acay

Phone: Ask in existing email thread Email: JAcay@blastandcast.org

Site / program: blastandcast.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

East Texas chapter of a Christian men's ministry; a free, donor-supported whitetail youth weekend for boys ages 7-17 with fathers / male guardians. Oct. 30-Nov. 1 combines hunting, family time and devotion.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Joel asked for a call later this week. I already sent my number, 318-664-3809, and asked what day and time works.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

A father/son or guardian/youth experience, with their actual values accurately represented.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What are you hoping a father and boy take away from the weekend?
2. When and how would you introduce an outside writer to a family?
3. Would a consenting guardian want to tell the experience in their own words?

WATCH FOR

Youth and family permission first. Do not treat the event as merely a commercial whitetail hunt or omit the ministry's character.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Agree a call time with Joel before asking to speak with families.

NOTES DURING THE CALL

CONTACT 17 | MEETING REQUEST

Person: Kylie Harris

Phone: 870-448-3981 Email: kyharris@uada.edu

Site / program: UA Extension / Searcy County 4-H

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Searcy County 4-H and the school district are running Oct. 19 Whitetail Deer Adventures: an educational wildlife session for children, not a deer hunt. Kylie is the 4-H agent coordinating with the lead teacher.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Kylie proposed a meeting with her and the lead teacher Monday, Oct. 12; no time stated.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Explore whether there is an appropriate educational or adult/teacher story, not a child hunt.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What are the classroom learning goals and your expectations of outside involvement?
2. Who handles district and parent permissions for any quote or image?
3. Could an adult teacher or local hunter discuss the educational side instead?

WATCH FOR

School and extension policies first. No child interviews/photos without institutional process and guardian approval.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Ask about the proposed Oct. 12 meeting; no time or participation has been confirmed.

03 / WRITTEN FOLLOW-UP

Person: Greg Ray

Phone: 918-407-2586 Email: greg@outdoorsolutionscorp.com

Site / program: outdoorsolutionscorp.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

For-profit outfitter and education business near Tulsa. Outdoor Solutions offers hunting trips and From Field to Table teaches processing/cooking; its parent-child event uses Cross Bell Ranch. Greg offered an introduction.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Greg offered to introduce a parent/child pair and asked about format, publication site and audience.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Be clear that Whitetail is a clothing/community brand, not independent news coverage.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What about the parent-child story makes you think they would enjoy sharing it?
2. What format and review process would make an introduction comfortable for them?
3. Would a written website feature and social excerpt be acceptable, with their explicit permission?

WATCH FOR

Do not imply editorial independence or promise audience size, money, promotion or event coverage; a minor needs guardian consent.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

After Kraig approves the sample and accurate audience description, answer Greg and request the introduction.

Phone: Ask in existing email thread Email: john.g.allman@cummins.com

Site / program: atterburysportsmanclub.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Atterbury Sportsman Club is a military-civilian club at Camp Atterbury. Its Wounded Hero committee supports disabled veterans and Purple Heart recipients with guided hunting designed for recovery and fellowship.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: John asked for a website link or example before discussing a possible feature.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Give a concrete sample and explain the intended publication before any participant approach.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Would a written story example answer your questions about tone and format?
2. What steps govern outside stories about Wounded Hero hunts?
3. Is there a volunteer or veteran you would consider inviting once format is approved?

WATCH FOR

Club / military base permissions and participant privacy apply. Do not treat a request for a link as permission to publish.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Send the approved Whitetail site/example first, then ask if John would like a call.

03 / WRITTEN FOLLOW-UP

Person: Kevin Potts

Phone: 210-372-3580 Email: kevinpotts@reachingoutdoors.org

Site / program: reachingoutdoors.org

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Reaching Outdoors of Texas is a Christian outdoors ministry for boys roughly 8-18, started by Kevin and Kim Potts. Small camps and fall hunting weekends emphasize outdoor skills and discipleship.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Kevin asked what the objective is and whether a boy is being asked to share a story. No agreement yet.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Define the specific ask before requesting an interview.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Are you open to passing a voluntary story invitation through parents?
2. Would an adult leader / parent perspective be more appropriate than a child interview?
3. What restrictions would apply to any story associated with a ranch or weekend?

WATCH FOR

Do not request child information, roster or direct access. Kevin has not agreed to a call or participation.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Reply in writing with one clear paragraph defining Whitetail, the website story, and opt-in permission.

The Quiver - Peel Compton Foundation

CONTACT 21 | ANSWER QUESTION

03 / WRITTEN FOLLOW-UP

Person: Jana Stout

Phone: 479-250-9814 Email: jana.stout@peelcompton.org

Site / program: peelcompton.org/the-quiver

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

The Quiver is a public archery range run by Peel Compton Foundation in Bentonville; it offers lessons and recreation, not deer hunts. Jana manages the range and knows possible members.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Jana knows possible members and asked whether we seek an adult or youth story.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

A beginner who learned archery at The Quiver and later had a memorable hunt.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Would you prefer we focus on an adult or a family-with-guardian story?
2. Does anyone come to mind who made the transition from range practice to hunting?
3. Could you pass an invitation rather than sharing private member information?

WATCH FOR

Never characterize the range as a hunting club or organized hunt. Youth consent applies if selected.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Choose adult vs youth internally; then answer Jana's question and request an introduction.

USACE Millwood Tri-Lakes

Person: Randall "Jay" Townsend

Phone: Not in reply; email first Email: Randall.R.Townsend@usace.army.mil

Site / program: USACE Little Rock District

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

U.S. Army Corps of Engineers public-affairs contact for Millwood Tri-Lakes youth deer hunt, Nov. 7-8. He handles permission for outside stories identifying the Corps program.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Jay asked whether the story is print or multimedia and whether a Corps employee would speak. Proposed 9 AM Oct. 8, now past; no completed call evidenced.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Clarify the story format and permissions before proposing any participants.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Would you prefer a written website story or another format for a formal request?
2. Could the subject be an adult mentor, a Corps employee, or a family with separate approvals?
3. What approvals and lead times would apply to quoting staff or describing the hunt?

WATCH FOR

Federal public-affairs approval first; the previously suggested Oct. 8, 9 AM call time has passed without a verified completed call.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Send a concise format clarification and ask whether a new call time is useful.

Sportsman's Hunting Club

Person: David Feisal / Phineas Lea

Phone: Ask in existing email thread Email: dfeisal@att.net (Phineas copied in thread)

Site / program: okcsportsmansclub.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Private family-member hunting club incorporated in 1947; members make land and mentorship available to other youth programs. Oct. 17 Alfalfa County youth hunt intersects with Outdoor Mentors.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 6: David suggested Phineas Lea as shared club/Outdoor Mentors contact; he copied Phineas. No call arranged.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Phineas Lea's perspective as a club-member mentor, not a separate competing program.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Is Phineas the best contact to describe preparations for the Oct. 17 hunt?
2. What does the club provide in land, logistics and volunteers?
3. Can we coordinate with Bobby so the same family is not contacted twice?

WATCH FOR

Private property, club rules, and any youth releases stay under the club and guardians. Avoid quoting disputed acreage figures as settled.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Reply to David and Phineas in the existing thread with one specific story angle.

Missouri Department of Conservation

CONTACT 24 | PASS INVITATION

03 / WRITTEN FOLLOW-UP

Person: Ashley Edwards

Phone: 573-522-4115 ext. 3420 Email: Ashley.Edwards@mdc.mo.gov

Site / program: mdc.mo.gov

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Missouri Department of Conservation runs an Oct. 10-11 Prairie Fork women's first-deer event: adult participants, classroom training and a one-to-one mentored antlerless hunt. Ashley can pass an invitation.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Ashley said she could pass a voluntary invitation after the Oct. 10-11 hunt.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

An adult first-hunt account after the event, through official organizer referral.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What part of preparation matters most to adult first-time hunters?
2. Could you pass a short optional invitation after the event?
3. Should willing participants contact us directly rather than sharing attendee details?

WATCH FOR

State-agency routing and private participant opt-in; agreement to forward does not mean someone agreed to be interviewed.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Send Ashley an approved, short invitation for distribution after the hunt.

Fort Campbell Fish and Wildlife

CONTACT 25 | PAO APPROVAL

Person: Jonathan Mills

Phone: 270-798-9854 Email: PAO: usarmy.campbell.id-readiness.mbx.pao-contact-us@army.mil

Site / program: Fort Campbell PAO

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Fort Campbell Fish & Wildlife is a U.S. Army installation program. Its Nov. 7-8 youth deer hunt requires public-affairs approval for installation-linked articles and interviews. Jonathan routed the inquiry to PAO.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Jonathan referred all Fort Campbell-related interviews/articles to installation Public Affairs; no approval given.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Follow the Army public-affairs process, not direct participant outreach.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. What information does PAO need to evaluate a short written story?
2. Is an adult program overview possible before any participant feature?
3. Would an article that simply mentions the event still require formal review?

WATCH FOR

No recording/interviews/publication about the installation without PAO approval. Jonathan has not approved a story.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Send formal inquiry to the PAO address Jonathan supplied after preparing a sample/one-sentence scope.

My Natural State Story

CONTACT 26 | REFERRAL PENDING

Person: Virginia Rhame Slayton

Phone: Ask in existing email thread Email: Virginia.Rhame@ade.arkansas.gov

Site / program: mynaturalstatestory.com

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY DOES

Arkansas Department of Education and partner agencies run My Natural State Story, a student essay contest that includes hunting as an eligible topic. Virginia forwarded the inquiry to a colleague involved in its development.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID / WHERE THE CONVERSATION STANDS

Oct. 7: Virginia passed the note to a contest colleague; no participant or reply from that colleague yet.

BEST WAY TO OPEN THE CALL

Ask for a voluntary post-contest story connection without disrupting student submissions.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

1. Who is the appropriate organizer for outside questions about the program?
2. Could there be an adult educator discussing what students learn about hunting stories?
3. If a student later volunteers, what release and school/parent process applies?

WATCH FOR

No requests for competition essays or participant contact information; student submissions and agency permissions are separate.

IMMEDIATE NEXT MOVE

Wait for referral; follow up with the organizer only with an approved written purpose.
